Schlumberger will evaluate the request and inform Customer which of any such requirements Schlumberger is unable to comply with before issuing Customer with the first invoice.
- 6.3. If Customer disputes any portion of an invoice in good faith, Customer must: (a) pay the undisputed portion of the invoice; (b) notify Schlumberger of the basis for the dispute and the specific items disputed (along with all supporting evidence) and; (c) provide a proposed resolution. Customer must not set off or withhold payments due for one billing period against a disputed invoice.

the Agreement. In such case, Customer shall deduct the withholding taxes from such grossed-up amounts and pay such withholding taxes directly to the appropriate governmental authority.

Should Schlumberger have to pay such taxes, Customer shall promptly reimburse Schlumberger such amounts that eliminate any incremental tax burden on Schlumberger due to the above stated factors. Schlumberger undertakes to provide Customer documents evidencing the imposition of such tax.
- 6.8. If as a result of any new legislation or extension/change in application of the existing law or interpretation thereof, any additional sums become payable by Schlumberger in respect to personal, corporate taxes, custom duties, or any other duties or levies, to any authorities of country of operation or elsewhere, not enacted at the submission of the Agreement, then Schlumberger shall be entitled to adjust its rates and prices with Customer, in a way that Schlumberger does not incur an additional economic burden directly attributable to the Agreement and associated with such tax change.
