2. Structure of this Agreement.

- 2.1. These T/Cs provide the contractual framework for Customer and Schlumberger to enter into agreements from time to time for the provision and use of those Online Services specified in Quotations.
- 2.2. Each Quotation shall, upon its execution (or acceptance by other means), constitute a separate legal agreement between Customer and Schlumberger for the provision of the Online Services specified in that Quotation and shall incorporate by reference these T/Cs to form an Agreement.
- 2.3. If there are any discrepancies between the relevant Quotation and these T/Cs, these T/Cs will take precedence unless that Quotation:
 - 2.3.1. expressly identifies specific section(s) of these T/Cs to be modified; and
 - 2.3.2. sets out the modified language of the specific section(s) so identified.
- 2.4. These T/Cs do not oblige either Customer or Schlumberger to issue or accept any Quotation or enter into any Agreement. Except to the extent provided in an Agreement Schlumberger shall not be obliged to provide any Online Services and Customer shall not be obliged to pay Schlumberger for use of any Online Services.

3. Customer access to Online Services.

- 3.1. Subject to the terms of the Agreement (and any applicable Service Specific Terms incorporated hereto by reference), Schlumberger hereby grants to Customer a non-exclusive, non-assignable, non-transferable, limited term, right to access and use the Online Services during the Subscription Term solely by Authorized Users for Customer's internal business purposes.
- 3.2. Schlumberger will establish the Customer Account. Customer is solely responsible for managing the Customer Account and for controlling access to and use of the Online Services, Customer Data by Customer's Authorized Users. Customer shall be responsible and liable for the acts and omissions of its Authorized Users, including any unauthorized access to the Customer Account by third parties caused by Customer's or its Authorized Users' loss or disclosure of account credentials or passwords. Customer may not be provided a Customer Account where limited viewing rights to the Online Services (or specific information contained therein) only are permitted.
- 3.3. The Online Services may include data, products and/or services to which separate licence terms apply and that require acceptance by the Customer and/or an Authorized User.

4. Obligations.

4.1. Schlumberger Obligations

- 4.1.1. Schlumberger will maintain all necessary licenses, consents, and permissions necessary for the performance of its obligations under an Agreement.
- 4.1.2. Certain Schlumberger software may be required to be installed on Authorized Users' devices in order to enable their access to or use of Online Services. Customer may install and use such software only for use in conjunction with the relevant Online Services. Customer's right to use the software begins when the relevant Online Services comes into effect and ends when Customer's right to use the relevant Online Services expires. On expiry of Customer's right to use the relevant Online Services, Customer must uninstall and delete the software.
- 4.1.3. Schlumberger will provide the Online Services in accordance with each Agreement.
- 4.1.4. In addition to any obligations under any service level agreement, Schlumberger will use commercially reasonable efforts to make available the Online Services to the Customer, except for required maintenance periods.

4.2. Customer Obligations

- 4.2.1. All Customer Accounts and Authorized User access must be kept secure and confidential.
- 4.2.2. Customer must promptly notify Schlumberger through the Customer Account, and maintain as confidential any information about: (i) possible Security Incident caused by the act or omission of Customer and/or an Authorized User; (ii) any security vulnerability of the Online Services discovered by Customer and/or an Authorized User; and/or (iii) suspected misuse of the Online Services by Customer and/or an Authorized User.
- 4.2.3. Customer must retain a copy of all Customer Data separate from the Online Services.
- 4.2.4. Customer must procure, maintain, and secure the network connections and telecommunications it uses to access the Online Services.
- 4.2.5. Neither Customer nor any Authorized Users:
 - 4.2.5.1. will use the Online Services: to violate the rights of others (including other Schlumberger customers or subcontractors using the services); to stalk, harass, threaten or harm another; to pretend to be any person or entity they are not; to post, send, transmit or otherwise make available any unsolicited communication or any communication that may be libellous, defamatory, disparaging, pornographic, obscene, or otherwise illegal; to plan or engage in any illegal activity or cause harm to any person or property; to gather or store Personal Data of any other user or customer of the Online Services; to gain or try to gain unauthorized access to or disrupt any service, device, data, account, or network; to distribute malicious software; or otherwise in a way that could harm the Online Services or Schlumberger Licensed Data, or impair anyone else's use of same;
 - 4.2.5.2. will copy, re-engineer, reverse engineer, or decompile the Online Services (to the extent the same cannot be restricted by law) or infringe or copy Schlumberger code or content or the design of the Online Services;
 - 4.2.5.3. will perform any stress, vulnerability, penetration, availability, performance testing on, or otherwise attempt to access, any network, system, server, or computer hosting the Online Services or introduce any virus or malicious software or similar into the Online Services; or
 - 4.2.5.4. will introduce into the Online Services or otherwise provide to Schlumberger any third party data and/or software or use the Online Services in any manner that could impose Third Party License Terms on Schlumberger.

5. General Payment Terms & Taxes.

- 5.1. Schlumberger will provide to Customer a monthly invoice for the amount due for access to and/or use of the Online Services. If Customer requires specific information for processing such invoices, Customer must inform Schlumberger of such requirements in writing within fifteen (15) days of the Effective Date. Schlumberger will evaluate the request and inform Customer which of any such requirements Schlumberger is unable to comply with before issuing Customer with the first invoice.
- 5.2. Unless otherwise agreed in a Quotation: (a) Customer will pay Schlumberger's published list price for each product or service offered through the Online Services; and (b) Customer will pay all invoices issued under an Agreement within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in United States Dollars.
- 5.3. If Customer disputes any portion of an invoice in good faith, Customer must: (a) pay the undisputed portion of the invoice; (b) notify Schlumberger of the basis for the dispute and the specific items disputed (along with all supporting evidence) and; (c) provide a proposed resolution. Customer must not set off or withhold payments due for one billing period against a disputed invoice.
- 5.4. Unpaid invoiced amounts will begin to accrue interest thirty (30) days after payment is due. Interest will accrue at the maximum amount permitted by law, unless another rate is provided in the applicable Quotation. Customer agrees to pay all reasonable and documented costs and attorneys' fees Schlumberger may incur in collecting any unpaid fees.
- 5.5. Upon termination of an Agreement for any reason, Customer must pay all amounts due.
- 5.6. Prices for the Online Services do not include any local, state, provincial, federal or national sales, use, excise, personal property, value-added, import/export, digital service tax, or other similar taxes or duties, which may be assessed in connection with the Online Services. If any such taxes or duties are applicable, they will be added to Schlumberger's invoices to Customer. If Schlumberger must initially pay such assessments, Customer agrees to reimburse Schlumberger within thirty (30) days after receipt of Schlumberger's invoice. Taxes based upon Schlumberger's income are the sole responsibility of Schlumberger.
- 5.7. The prices, rates and charges set forth in the Agreement and each Quotation are completely net of any amounts in respect of any withholding taxes that may be applicable upon payments by Customer. If any withholding taxes are deemed to be applicable on settlements made by Customer to Schlumberger, Customer agrees that it shall on its own accord gross-up the access fee or any other charges due under this agreement in a fashion that net amounts received after such withholding yield back the prices and rates under the Agreement. In such case, Customer shall deduct the withholding taxes from such grossed-up amounts and pay such withholding taxes directly to the appropriate governmental authority.
- 5.8. If any tax is imposed on Schlumberger, outside its country of incorporation and fiscal residence, as a consequence of the providing services under an Agreement or due to an act of Customer that is outside the control of Schlumberger or due to Customer accessing and storing the data in a particular country, such taxes will be for the sole account of Customer and be paid by Customer irrespective of how it is levied. Should Schlumberger have to pay such taxes, Customer shall promptly reimburse Schlumberger such amounts that eliminate any incremental tax burden on Schlumberger due to the above stated factors. Schlumberger undertakes to provide Customer documents evidencing the imposition of such tax.
- 5.9. If as a result of any new legislation or extension/change in application of the existing law or interpretation thereof, any additional sums become payable by Schlumberger in respect to personal, corporate taxes, Custom duties, or any other duties or levies, to any authorities of country of operation or elsewhere, not enacted at the submission of the Agreement, then Schlumberger shall be entitled to adjust its rates and prices with Customer, in a way that Schlumberger does not incur an additional economic burden directly attributable to the Agreement and associated with such tax change.

6. Term, Suspension, and Termination.

- 6.1. Each Agreement will begin on the Effective Date and will continue until the expiry of the Subscription Term, unless terminated earlier in accordance with its terms.
- 6.2. A Subscription Term begins when Schlumberger first provides Customer access credentials to its Customer Account. The Subscription Term will be:
 - 6.2.1. the duration specified in the applicable Quotation; or
 - 6.2.2. if either no duration is stated or no Quotation exists, three (3) months and will thereafter automatically renew every three (3) months, absent a party giving the other written notice of termination not less than one (1) month before the automatic renewal date.
- 6.3. Schlumberger may suspend access to any or all of the Online Services: (a) for any non-compliance with laws and regulations under Section 10.1; (b) for any violation of Schlumberger's proprietary rights under Section 12; (c) for a breach of the confidentiality provisions in Section 13 by Customer and/or Authorized User; (d) for a breach of Customer's representations and warranties in Section 14; (e) for failure to pay any amounts invoiced by Schlumberger, which have not been disputed by Customer in good faith and which are more than 30 days overdue; (f) if Customer disables or impedes Schlumberger's ability to generate accurate Usage Reports; (g) upon Customer becoming subject to a change of control; (h) (unless otherwise expressly agreed in a Quotation) upon Customer's and/or any Authorized User's use of the Online Services to perform consulting services for third parties; or (i) for Customer's and/or any Authorized User's breach of Sections 4.2.5. If the event giving rise to Schlumberger's right to suspend under this provision is not remedied to Schlumberger's reasonable satisfaction within 30 days of Schlumberger having notified Customer thereof, or if such event is in Schlumberger's opinion not capable of remedy, Schlumberger may terminate the relevant Agreement and/or any Customer or any of Customer's Authorized Users' access to the Online Services.

- 6.4. In addition to the other remedies set out in an Agreement, either party may immediately terminate an Agreement by written notice to the other party if:
 - 6.4.1. the other party commits a material breach of any term of the Agreement and fails to remedy the same within thirty (30) days of the date of written notice (Customer's failure to comply with its payment obligations will be deemed a material breach);
 - 6.4.2. the other party commits a material breach of any term of the Agreement and such breach is irremediable;
 - 6.4.3. the other party suspends, or threatens to suspend, payment of its debts;
 - 6.4.4. the other party is deemed insolvent, unable to pay its debts, or enters into any arrangement with its creditors (other than for the sole purpose of a solvent reorganization); or
 - 6.4.5. the other party files a petition for or becomes subject to an order for winding up, bankruptcy, dissolution, an administrator or receiver is appointed, or anything of similar effect in any country.
- 6.5. On expiration or termination of an Agreement for any reason:
 - 6.5.1. all Customer rights and access to the Online Services will immediately terminate;
 - 6.5.2. any Customer Data/or and Personal Data remaining in the Online Services will be deleted. However, Customer Data and/or Personal Data may persist in the Online Services environment for up to 180 days following deletion, but only as part of its archiving, indexing and backup systems. During this period Schlumberger will not use such data for any purpose other than archiving, indexing and backup; and
 - 6.5.3. Customer will delete or return all Documentation, Schlumberger Confidential Information, and certify the same in writing to Schlumberger within thirty (30) days of the date of termination.

7. Customer Data.

- 7.1. Schlumberger claims no ownership rights in Customer Data.
- 7.2. Customer is solely responsible for the legality, reliability, integrity, accuracy, and quality of data that Customer or any Authorized User provides to the Online Services or makes available to Schlumberger. Customer acknowledges that by granting access to Authorized Users, Authorized Users may have the ability to export Customer Data from the Online Services.
- 7.3. Schlumberger may only use Customer Data to provide the Online Services and secure and improve Schlumberger's products and services. Schlumberger may only use information about Authorized Users' interaction with the Online Services to provide the Online Services, secure and improve Schlumberger's products and services, and comply with its third-party service provider's consumption reporting requests and requirements.
- 7.4. Schlumberger will use cloud computing service providers and other third party service providers in connection with the Online Services. Schlumberger, the cloud computing service providers, or the third party service providers may transmit, maintain, and/or store Customer Data using third party computers and equipment in locations around the world, including locations outside the country of operation or incorporation of Customer, or outside the country of origin of the Customer Data. Customer may request Schlumberger to maintain and store Customer Data in a specified location. Schlumberger shall endeavour to comply with such request, but will be under no obligation to do so.
- 7.5. If Schlumberger provides Customer with feedback or suggestions about Customer Data, then Customer may use that information without obligation to Schlumberger, and Schlumberger hereby irrevocably assigns to Customer all right, title, and interest in that feedback or suggestions; however, Schlumberger retains all right, title, and interest in any feedback or suggestions related to development of, improvements to, or security enhancements to Schlumberger's products and/or services (including the Online Services).

8. Improvements and Changes.

- 8.1. Schlumberger reserves the right to modify, enhance or remove any feature or functionality of the Online Services, or suspend or improve the Online Services without the need for any consent from the Customer.

Schlumberger will announce if it intends to discontinue an Online Service specified at <https://www.software.slb.com/deprecation>. Schlumberger will use commercially reasonable efforts to continue operating the Online Service for at least 12 months after the notification, unless (as Schlumberger reasonably determines):

 - 8.1.1. required by law or third-party relationship (including if there is a change in applicable law or relationship), or
 - 8.1.2. doing so could create a security risk or substantial economic or material technical burden.

9. Data Privacy and Security.

- 9.1. Schlumberger provides the Online Services consistent with its Privacy Statement (<http://www.slb.com/about/privacy.aspx>), all Applicable Data Protection laws, and the applicable Security Framework incorporated by reference hereto (the DELFI security framework can be found at: <https://www.software.slb.com/delfi/security>).
- 9.2. If there is a Security Incident affecting Customer Data:
 - 9.2.1. Schlumberger will notify Customer about the Security Incident without undue delay upon becoming aware;
 - 9.2.2. Schlumberger may immediately suspend the Online Services, Customer Account, or Authorized Users' access without notice and for as long as Schlumberger, acting reasonably, deems necessary; and
 - 9.2.3. Schlumberger may adjust Customer's fees to account for an interruption to the Online Services, provided that the Security Incident was unrelated to Customer's or Authorized Users' acts or omissions.

10. Compliance with Laws.

- 10.1. Customer, Authorized User, and Schlumberger will each comply with all laws and regulations applicable to them and related to the provision and use of the Online Services including data transmission, storage, processing, privacy, security breaches, data residency, import/export controls, and international sanctions.

Customer will not allow access, use of, or ingestion of data to the Online Services by Authorized Users:

- (1) from Cuba, North Korea, Syria, Iran or other countries that are subject to United States, United Nations, European Union or similar trade sanctions/embargoes; or
- (2) in a manner which would breach any country's data residency laws or regulations, by any means whatsoever.

Customer's or the Customer's Authorized Users' violation of applicable export or trade control regulations will result in the immediate suspension of the Customer's and the Customer's Authorized Users' rights under the Agreement. The exportation to or use in Cuba, North Korea, North Sudan, Syria, Iran or other countries that are subject to United States, United Nations, European Union or similar trade sanctions or embargoes is prohibited.

- 10.2. If Customer and/or any Authorized User is or becomes a denied party or otherwise the subject of any sanctions legislation that, in Schlumberger's reasonable opinion, restricts or prohibits Customer's and/or Authorized Users' access to or use of the Online Services, such access will be immediately suspended. If legally permitted, Schlumberger will promptly notify Customer of any such suspension, data retention, or data deletion. Nothing herein shall restrict Schlumberger's ability to comply with any legal requirements relating to the retention or deletion of Customer Data that may arise in connection with sanctions legislation.
- 10.3. The Parties agree that it is not their intention for Schlumberger or the Online Services to be deemed an internet service provider.
- 10.4. Schlumberger will comply with take-down notices for removing material from the Online Services pursuant to the U.S. Digital Millennium Copyright Act, or similar applicable law. If such a take-down notice involves material posted by Customer or an Authorized User, Schlumberger will notify Customer regarding the take-down notice within a commercially reasonable time. Within fifteen (15) days after receiving notice from Schlumberger, Customer may provide evidence to Schlumberger providing a legal basis to challenge the adequacy of the take-down notice along with a request to return the removed materials from the Online Services. Upon receipt of such request from Customer, Schlumberger will evaluate the evidence with the Customer to determine an appropriate course of action. If the removed material is returned to the Online Services, Customer will be responsible for addressing further concerns from the entity who sent the original take-down notice to Schlumberger.

11. Assignment.

- 11.1. No rights or obligations under these T/Cs and/or any Agreement are assignable or transferable (other than to Schlumberger's or Customer's Affiliates) in any manner, whether voluntary, by merger, operation of law or otherwise without the other party's prior written agreement. Any transfer or assignment in breach of this section allows the non-breaching party to terminate these T/Cs and/or any Agreement.

12. Schlumberger Proprietary Rights.

- 12.1. All title, ownership, and right in and to the Online Services, as well as any modifications or derivative works of the Online Services (even if created by Customer or by an Authorized User), and any media or infrastructure on which the Online Services is provided, remain with Schlumberger or its licensors.
